

ACRP Membership

NEW!! The electronic membership structure has been accepted and adopted for members in Australia and NZ at a rate of US$60 for ACRP members and US$150 for APPI members.

Global alliances now have the option of choosing either the full US$150 ACRP member rate (US$300 for APPI), and receiving the print issues of the Monitor, or the US$60 member ACRP rate (US$150 for APPI), and receiving the electronic issues of the Monitor and all ACRP correspondence.

As you know, the Australia / New Zealand Chapter is ACRP's Global Alliance in Australia and New Zealand. ACRP recently gave all its Global Alliances the option to offer an electronic-only membership to members in their area. This option was requested by our Global Alliances as a way to better serve its local membership.

The Australia / New Zealand Chapter decided to change to an electronic-only membership, which allows your dues rate to remain lower than it would be if we were to send you printed materials via the mail. This will not in any way effect the service and member benefits you receive from ACRP as all materials (including The Monitor, confirmations, etc.) will still be sent to you via email, as well as accessible through on our web site once you log-in. Additionally, from January 2009 ACRP will launch a new global online community for members which will include an online networking tool, upgraded eGroup/listserv tools, an online resource library and a new wiki glossary that will help you better access networking and knowledge resources via the web.

If you have any questions about this, please do not hesitate to contact Robyn Lichter at Nucleus Network. Thank you for your continued support and membership with ACRP.

Member Benefits

We know your time is at a premium and you need information quickly and succinctly. ACRP Membership connects you to more than 20,000 of your peers through participation in targeted Education Courses, Conferences, E-learning, Chapters, Specialty Forums and More.

When you Join ACRP, you can also take advantage of these other Member Benefits:

Exclusive, Members-Only Tools and Resources

- Access to the ACRP Online Community*
 - Member Directory – meet and interact with over 20,000 fellow clinical researchers in our new directory feature - similar to Facebook or LinkedIn - the online community allows you to manage your network
 - eForums - ask questions and get answers from other members in shared interest areas, and to discuss general topics of interest
 - Resource Library - submit, comment on, rank and search for a wide variety of documents and resources useful to the clinical research community
 - Wiki – view, add to and edit an extensive glossary of clinical research terms

- ACRPs bi-monthly journal The Monitor featuring peer-reviewed articles, columns and association news
 - Home Study tests in each issue of The Monitor provide 3.0 continuing education credits each at the lowest cost per contact hour offered by ACRP
- The Wire bi-weekly e-newsletter delivers current news specific to clinical research via email, RSS news feed or via the acrpnet.org home page (available via subscription as well).
- Local Chapter resources - U.S. and Global - educational events and networking opportunities in your area
- Access to the online Career Center with free resume posting
